EXPOSITION BILL IS FINALLY PASSED AND COMMISSIONERS NAMED

Chairman H. P. Wood of the Hawaii Fair Commission

The commission was named by the governor last evening and immediately confirmed by the senate.

The conference committee of the Panama-Pacific Exposition bill reported to the two houses late yesterday afternoon that an agreement had been reached. The report was adopted. By the agreement $100,000 is to be appropriated for the exposition exhibit, and the "rider" which made the appropriation contingent upon California not passing an alien-land law was taken out.

Within four hours after the houses had adopted the report of the committee which caused the bill to reach the governor, the latter appointed the four Panama-Pacific Exposition commissioners, whose names were confirmed last night.

The commissioners are H. P. Wood, John Wise, the very capable clerk of the senate, John Hughes, C. E. Wright and J. N. S. Williams. The senators were pleased with the appointments, particularly that of John Wise.

The meeting of the Kamehameha Alumni Association will be held at its clubhouse tomorrow evening instead of tonight.

tions for the payment of certain claims against the Territory of Hawaii.
